

Please, do NOT MESS with the New Jersey Do-not-call provisions - they work for consumers who value their privacy. I understand that two thirds of New Jersey residents have registered - is that enough of a majority to hear? Again - DO NOT MESS with provisions that work.